*The reporting requirement includes several research funding mechanisms which will first allocate funding in FY 2016 (Core Research Support, Texas Research University Fund, Comprehensive Research Fund and Governor's University Research Initiative). Although not required, this report for FY 2015 includes similar programs existing during that fiscal year (Research Development Fund and Texas Competitive Knowledge Fund) and which will not be included in future reports.

 To supplement the Texas Research Incentive Program, U. T. System Board of Regents created the U. T. System Research Incentive Program (UTRIP), funded with Permanent University Fund bond proceeds, as an additional means to augment philanthropic gifts directed toward research U. T. System emerging research institutions.

Notes - Amounts reported for matching awards only include those funds provided to the institution from an external source. Certain institutions matched CPRIT with internal sources.

- Does not include lapsed appropriation for UTSA ($12,117.84 - Research Development Fund)
