University of Texas System Investment Disclosure

Does the institution employ outside investment advisors or managers and, if so, who are they (provide individual or firm name and address)? Do the outside investment advisors or managers have the authority to make investment decisions without obtaining prior approval?

The University of Texas/Texas A&M Investment Management Company ("UTIMCO") is the sole investment advisor of the Board of Regents of The University of Texas System.

UTIMCO

210 W. 7th Street

Austin, Tx 78701

Investment Policy Statements may be found at:

<https://utsystem.edu/offices/controller/state-required-reports#investments>

UTIMCO must obtain approval via the various investment policies, and then they have the authority to proceed to make investment decisions as long as they adhere to the various policies.

Does the institution use soft dollar, directed brokerage or directed commission, commission recapture, or similar arrangements (these arrangements typically involve using brokerage commissions as a means of paying for other related investment services through credits of a portion of brokerage commissions paid rather than through direct payments, or using selected brokers who will rebate a portion of commissions they receive on trades for the investor)? If the answer to this question is yes, the institution must summarize briefly the guidelines that govern the use of such arrangements.

Yes. Guidelines summarized in link below:

Is the institution associated with an independent endowment or foundation? If the answer to this question is yes, the institution must provide contact information (name and address) for the individual(s) who manage the independent endowment or foundation. The institution must also provide, if available, the market value of the endowment's or foundation's investments.

No.
